

When A Woman's Fed Up

February 15, 2026 | Altria Theater | 6 North Laurel Street, Richmond, VA 23220

When a Woman's Fed Up is a compelling stage play that delves into the intricate web of various types of relationships, focusing on the challenges women face and the empowering journey of self-discovery when they reach the point of no return. When a Woman's Fed Up delivers a message of empowerment and liberation, encouraging the audience to have compassion, break free from societal expectations, embrace their independence and prioritize their own happiness. Written by the late David T. Payton, (A Good Man is Hard to Find) and his life partner Annette Campbell, this gripping tale delves into the struggles, triumphs, and resilience of its characters, offering a profound reflection on the human experience.
